

GIRL MASQUERADER SHOT BY POLICEMAN

KINGSTON, N. Y., Dec. 5.—Eva Henderson, nineteen years old, was shot in the leg last night by a policeman while she was trying to escape arrest. She was dressed in men's clothes. The policeman was detailed to watch for a mysterious woman in black or man who had been terrifying women and children at night by prowling around houses and trying door knobs and windows. The policeman arrested Miss Henderson, who said she had been having fun frightening neighbors. The girl broke away from her captor twice, and the second time he shot, the bullet striking her in the leg.

NOTED WOMAN DIES ABROAD.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—Mrs. W. L. Croll, a native of Chicago, best known in musical circles by her maiden name, Alice Maude Whittaker, is dead. Mr. and Mrs. Croll had long been residents of London.

GIRL IN CARRIAGE CRASH IS DEAD.

(Special to The Evening World.) NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 5.—Clara Sherer, one of the four girls who were victims of an accident at the Fourth street crossing of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Harrison, died at her home, No. 86 Houston street, this city, to-day. The party of young people were making ing merry in a carriage driven by D. L. Hotchkiss. They had just completed their day's work and had no warning of the peril they were in. The other three girls who were in the carriage are in a serious condition. D. L. Hotchkiss, the driver, was also injured. He was accompanied with the girls and had invited them to ride home. The Fourth street crossing in Harrison is known as a particularly dangerous spot. In Circuit Court to-day Justice Skinner and a jury heard testimony in the $50,000 suit against the railroad for the death of Jacob Frank and his son, Mrs. Frank, the widow, is the plaintiff. The men were killed under circumstances similar to those attending the crash in which the four girls figured.

MARRIED DEAD WIFE'S SISTER.

Felding Lewis Marshall, a lawyer of this city, was married on Dec. 3 in Chicago to Virginia Alexander, daughter of the late James B. Alexander, and sister of Mr. Marshall's wife, who died about three years ago. Mr. Marshall is forty-three years old and not eighty-three, as was reported in a morning paper to-day. By his first marriage he had six children. Up to a short time ago Mr. Marshall lived with his family on Morris Heights, but he has since removed to Chicago with his entire family. He will return to this city in a short time and live in the Hotel Netherlands. He is a graduate of Princeton and a grandson of the late Chief Justice Marshall, of the United States Supreme Court.

Prince Henry Not Coming. BERLIN, Dec. 5.—It is officially denied that Prince Henry of Prussia will succeed Dr. Von Holleben as Ambassador at Washington.

RAID SLEUTH ADMITS SON TRIED SUICIDE

It was learned to-day that the youth who attempted to commit suicide in Jersey City and said he was the son of County Detective Jacobs, the sleuth who says he played in Canfield's with false whiskers and face dye, told the truth. The county detective called up Chief Murphy, of Jersey City, on the telephone to-day and after a description of the youth had been given him admitted that it was his son. It appeared that Jacobs chastised the boy, who ran away from home with the intention of going West. When he got to Jersey City discouragement overtook him and he took laudanum. Just before Jacobs called up Chief Murphy released the boy, who promised to go home. Jacobs fears that his son will make another attempt to end his life.

SAW GIACOMINI'S COMET. WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The United States Naval Observatory reports that W. W. Dwyer, one of its staff, last night observed the comet discovered by Giacomini at Nice Tuesday. The comet is moving westward.
